

Footnote: The Bible clearly declares that God, in each of the Three Divine Persons, never intended women to be priests. Extra-Biblically, this also prevents men from claiming any right to become nuns which has been traditionally reserved for women.