"Prayers for those who are sick"

When people are no longer sick, can I ask that people let me know, please? Just drop me an email and I'll remove them from the list, thanks.

Wrong emails

Also, over recent weeks I've had 3 requests through various sources asking to join our Newsletter email circulation. Unfortunately, none of the 3 email addresses are correct and I don't have any names with the emails to get back in touch.

So, if you're looking to join the Parish Newsletter email list, or know somebody who wants to join, then please just drop me an email and I'll add them to the list, thanks.

STATIONS of the CROSS

The Stations this Sunday are a translation by Fr. Mike of the Stations of the Cross being used in Brazil this Lent on the theme of hunger. Each year in Brazil the people choose a theme and based on this the Bishops' Conference organize new hymns to be sung during mass, special Holy Hour, Penitential Service, Holy Hour, Ecumenical Service, weekly Biblical reflections (different for children, youth and whole community) and Stations of the Cross. It makes Lent very creative and dynamic. Over the past 50 plus years the themes have been very diversified such as:

- 1967 We are all brothers
- 1978 Work and Justice for everyone.
- 1981 Health for everyone
- 1987 Abandoned children
- 2001 Life yes, drugs no!
- 2004 Fraternity and water
- 2008 In defence of Life
- 2013 Fraternity and Youth
- 2014 Fraternity and human trafficking
- 2015 Serving others
- 2019 Fraternity and Public policies
- 2022 Fraternity and education
