LOURDES PILGRIMAGE

On Monday our pilgrims and sick begin their journey. We keep them all in our prayers during this special time.

HEALTHY SNACKS

This weekend is the first weekend of the month and time for our Healthy Snacks to be handed in. It is school holiday time, but they will begin the term with an empty larder so good to be building up a reserve. Hungry Kids!

June draw winners.

1st. No 164 ~ G. McLaughlin.

2nd No 148 ~ B. Burneyt

The next draw will be in Tullibody on the 27th July 2025 after 11.30 Mass.

PITTENWEEM PILGRIMAGE TO ST FILLAN'S CAVE

Some of you may have already visited St. Fillan's Cave under the Episcopal Church in Pittenweem. We have been discussing with the responsible there about a parish group going there to say mass in the Cave. They already have daily prayers there and pilgrim groups do visit.

The original dates we tried were not suitable due to the local ARTS Festival and other village activities.

Pittenweem is a very small harbour village on a steep hillside.

Please note this pilgrimage would not be for those with mobility difficulties. The access to the cave is a very long alley way, about 300 steps. Inside the cave the rock floor is very uneven and even slightly hazardous. Sorry about that.

If we had about 30 people we could rent a small bus. 30 would be the maximum possible in the cave and that really is the maximum as it is small.

It would, at today's prices, cost about £25-£28 per person bus and a donation to the parish church( they have offered us teas and refreshments; entrance to the Cave is normally £2 per person).

I have left a sheet at the back of the church. This is NOT A COMMITMENT but an indication you would be interested in going. This way we can calculate the size of the bus etc. Thanks. Please sign TODAY!

Please indicate if you prefer a Saturday or a weekday. I would imagine leaving about 9am and being back for 4pm.

ALTAR SERVERS

We have 5 possible servers. They will be coming every Saturday at 10am for a brief practise. It really depends on Mums & Dads and carers to encourage and support them. If they are able a good way to get over shyness and stage fright is for them to come to weekday masses. Less people and idle to learn.

St. Modan's Youth

We also have 5 youths from St. Modan's doing their CARITAS AWARDS and want to become more involved in our parish. They will help as Readers and probably look after the CD music at the vigil and early Sunday morning mass.

Diocese Update

The Diocese has recruited support in the fields of social and print media.

Jamie Stewart Jones is stepping in as editor of the relaunched Dunkeld News. Jamie brings more than 25 years of experience in publishing, editing and translation. He previously worked as Editorial Consultant for the Portuguese Journal of Social Science, where he managed the entire publication process. He knows his way around editorial work, always ensuring everything looks just right.

Our plan is to relaunch the Diocesan magazine in September 2025 following the one-year anniversary of the installation of Bishop Andrew. If you have any thoughts or ideas for content Jamie will be delighted to hear from you. Jamie can be contacted at: dunkeldnews@dunkelddiocese.org.uk
We also plan to reach out to individuals to contribute articles to add to the content of the magazine ... so stand by!

Francesca Forbes is joining the Diocese of Dunkeld to produce and manage our social media content. Francesca has a degree in Business Management and hands-on experience running her own marketing business, and will bring both strategic insight and creative flair to the Diocese's digital platforms. She leads on content creation, campaign planning, and event coverage across Facebook, Instagram, and X - ensuring the Church's mission is communicated with warmth, relevance, and authenticity. Francesca believes strongly in the power of digital media to build faith communities, spark curiosity, and share the beauty of Catholic life - especially with younger audiences. Her work reflects a passion for making the Church more visible, welcoming, and relatable in today's digital world. When she's not behind the camera or designing posts, you'll likely find her travelling, enjoying a good coffee, or at the gym!

Francesca has established a presence for the Diocese on:

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/diocesefofdunkeld?igsh=MW05cGJ2MHg2am8weA==>

X: <https://x.com/dunkelddiocese?lang=en>

She would really appreciate if you made these links available through your parish websites and Facebook pages as well as newsletters etc.

If you have any ideas for content, please don't hesitate to make contact with her at: socialmedia@dunkelddiocese.org.uk
