PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

Met last week. There was a reflection and discussion on areas of concern just now in the parish: Altar servers, Reader, Eucharistic Ministers and pass-keepers. It was decided after the summer holidays to prepare material to go into the Newsletter about each group. We do need more people and we need to become more aware of the importance of these ministries. Although there has been enormous improvements we need to better the organisation of each ministry and increase their numbers. We will do this when people are back from their holidays. However, we will start with our altar servers as new servers can take the opportunity of the summer holidays to gain experience. Please encourage younger first communicants.

We agreed we should encourage more adults to come forward to serve on the altar.

There was a sharing of ideas on the project we have prepared to send to an organisation to help buy new crib figures for this Christmas. We no longer have a full set of crib figures and we need to update. This is an important visual aid especially for children but very expensive to renew.

Final arrangements were discussed to send a letter to the Diocese regarding what has to be exempt from the Diocesan levy.

Congratulations to Rev. Mons. Basil O'Sullivan, parish priest in Auchterarder who celebrated his platinum anniversary to the priesthood last week.

MY COMMITMENT TO THE ALTAR SERVERS MINISTRY

I hereby commit to serve as an Altar Server for St. Bernadette's.

As Such,

I will strive to live always in a state of grace and seek means for spiritual growth through prayer, reconciliation, attending Sunday Masses and Holy Days of Obligation.

I will be faithful in fulfilling my scheduled mass assignment and arranging for a substitute if I am unable to serve as scheduled.

I will make every effort to arrive at my scheduled mass at least 15 minutes before mass to continue my faithfulness in fulfilling my commitment to this Ministry.

I will dress according to the guidelines of the church and treat my vestments with care.

I will participate in the liturgy of the mass through prayers and song.

I will attend practises to learn how to be a server..
