PRAYER FOR SEAFARERS

May all who sail the seas be surrounded by Your presence, O Lord.

Grant wisdom to every captain, strength to every crew member, and calm hearts to all who face the uncertainty of the oceans. Guide every vessel safely through rough waters, fierce storms, and unseen dangers. Let the winds be favourable, the seas be merciful, and every journey be protected by Your loving care.

Watch over those who spend long days and nights far from their families. Give them courage in moments of fear, patience in times of hardship, and hope when they feel alone. Bless their work, their friendships, and the sacrifices they make to provide for those they love.

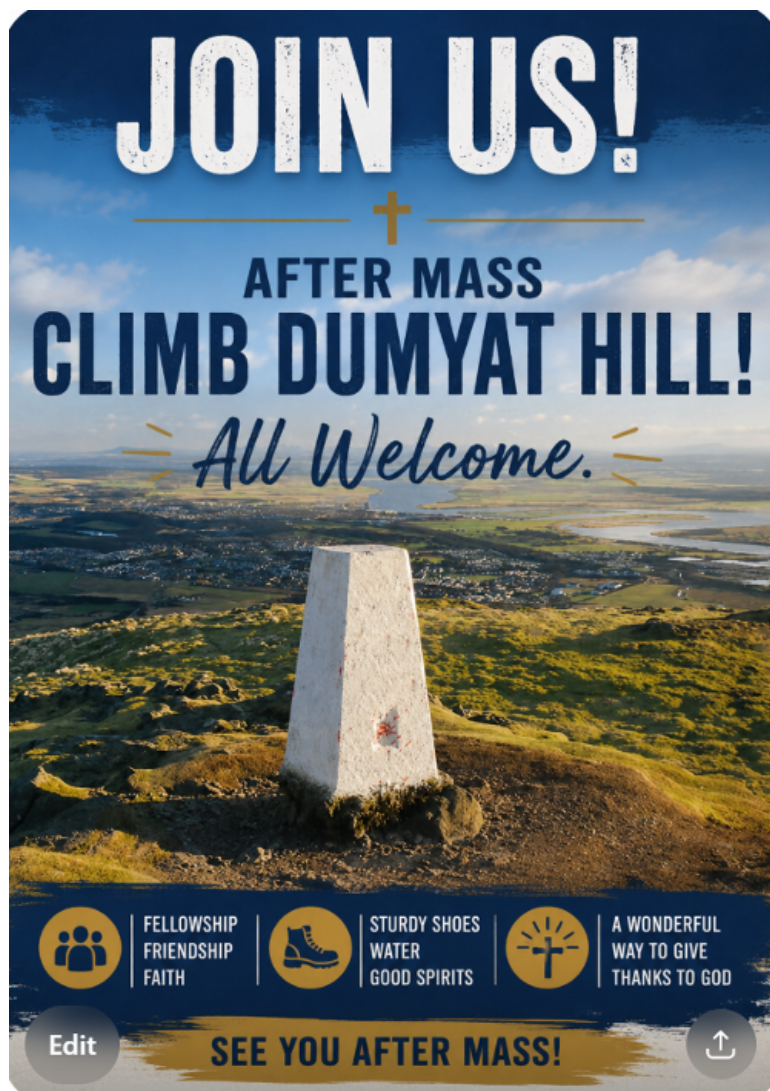

Comfort the families waiting at home. Fill them with peace, confidence, and the assurance that You are watching over their loved ones wherever they may be.

PASTORAL OF THE SEA

Sea crews face a wide range of physical, mental, and professional challenges. Some of the most common difficulties and hardships include:

- ✦ Long periods away from family and loved ones.
- ✦ Loneliness and social isolation.
- ✦ Mental stress, anxiety, depression, and homesickness.
- ✦ Fatigue caused by long working hours and irregular sleep schedules.
- ✦ Severe weather, rough seas, and storms.
- ✦ Risk of accidents, injuries, fires, and equipment failures.
- ✦ Piracy, armed robbery, and security threats in some regions.
- ✦ Medical emergencies with limited access to healthcare while at sea.
- ✦ Physical exhaustion from demanding manual work.
- ✦ Exposure to extreme temperatures, heavy rain, strong winds, and high humidity.
- ✦ Language and cultural differences among multinational crews.
- ✦ Limited internet and communication with family.
- ✦ Contract extensions and delayed crew changes.
- ✦ Strict inspections, regulations, and paperwork.
- ✦ Pressure to meet schedules and commercial deadlines.
- ✦ Mechanical breakdowns and unexpected operational problems.
- ✦ Navigational hazards such as reefs, shallow waters, and congested shipping lanes.

These hardships require resilience, teamwork, professionalism, and strong support from families, shipping companies, maritime organisations, and faith communities.

Dumyat is a popular, 418-meter hill at the western edge of the Ochil Hills.

Known for its iconic summit beacon and ancient hill fort, it offers sweeping views across Stirling and the River Forth.

After the 11.30am mass SUNDAY we will meet in the car park 12.30pm. Sturdy shoes, clothes suitable for the weather. Bring water!

THOSE WITHOUT CARS PLEASE JOIN US.

We will organise the cars in the car park as there is not much available parking at the Sherrifmuir side of the hill. No doubt we can share cars and spaces for those without transport. Normally it takes 2 hours to go up and down but add a little more time.

Fr. Mike has been up 3 times !!

IF IT RAINS HEAVILY ON THE SATURDAY FOR MORE THAN AN HOUR IT IS PROBABLY BEST WE DO NOT MAKE THE WALK, CLIMB.
