POPES AND HOLIDAY TIME

The popes stress that this period should not be viewed simply as a time of idleness. For example, vacations can instead be an opportunity to pause and reflect on the beauty of nature, or “God’s book”, as described by Pope Paul VI.

Paul VI: Holidays are for reading, discovering and friendships

John Paul II: Meetings and encounters essential to vacations

Benedict XVI: In nature, man rediscovers himself

Francis: Deepening one’s spiritual journey through vacations

MY COMMITMENT TO THE ALTAR SERVERS MINISTRY

I hereby commit to serve as an Altar Server for St. Bernadette's.

As Such,

I will strive to live always in a state of grace and seek means for spiritual growth through prayer, reconciliation, attending Sunday Masses and Holy Days of Obligation.

I will be faithful in fulfilling my scheduled mass assignment and arranging for a substitute if I am unable to serve as scheduled.

I will make every effort to arrive at my scheduled mass at least 15 minutes before mass to continue my faithfulness in fulfilling my commitment to this Ministry.

I will dress according to the guidelines of the church and treat my vestments with care.

I will participate in the liturgy of the mass through prayers and song.

I will attend practises to learn how to be a server..
